

Clean Up Campaign

1. Intent of Policy

The intention of this policy is to formally define a twice yearly clean up campaign that provides an economical, efficient and consistent domestic waste removal service to all residents of the Oberon Council area.

2. Scope of Policy

This policy applies to all residents of the Oberon Council area.

3. Guidelines

The Oberon Garbage Depot will be opened twice a year with no charge for domestic rubbish.

The openings will ~~coincide with the Clean Up Australia Day and the Daffodil Festival~~.
generally occur each March and September.

Council will notify residents of the exact timing of the campaign in the Oberon Review prior to the openings.

Council will consider written applications for a special kerbside pickup from people with special needs. The Director of Engineering will assess and determine applications.
