April in the library

The library closed over the Easter break for the public holidays. A record number of customers per hour were served during April 6 x Holiday activity sessions were held with 74 attendances- one session was fully booked (21) causing 15 children to be turned away. Highlights were two Waste to Art sessions with Celia Ravesi with the results entered into the competition.

Storytime averaged 15 per children and 5 carers per week

The Rotary club held one of their evening meetings at the library which was very successful with 22 in attendance. A tour, library talk and entertainment were provided for them.

8 positive comments were received in the visitors' book.
