7. QUESTIONS FROM THE PUBLIC

Sam Lord congratulated Council on the progress that has been made with the Local Government NSW Unrateable Land Working Party having successfully carried a motion at the LG NSW Annual Conference held in December. This is something that the Council has been chasing for years and it is great to see progress.

Chris Freeman, Private Investigator living in the Oberon area commented about the discussions that have been held regarding fluoride. He commented that Council has received everything that needs to be expressed. Chris expressed concern that the nature of meetings held was clandestine and there is a level of bureaucracy taking over the process. He also further commented about the Council resolution from the February Ordinary Meeting to join a Joint Organisation and expressed his misgivings about the process and that in his opinion it is a covert takeover.

Veronika Cvitanovic spoke about the fluoride review and health issues associated with this. NSW Health say it is good for teeth, there are people who live in Oberon specifically due to the fact there is no fluoride in the Oberon water. Four years ago the issue was debated extensively and the fact that NSW Health has written to Council should be no reason to revisit something that was decided so recently. We fought hard to stay independent during the merger process and we should maintain our position about fluoride. If Council does decide to review it again it will use significant Council resources. We should do things with those resources that are best for town and will make a difference.

Robin Wiseman spoke about items that she has become aware of. Robin commented about an "Ice" epidemic in our community. She would like to see it bought out to the wider community via education as many are unaware of drug problems. Children in these environments are in danger and need to know where they can turn to. The community needs to speak up and bring to a discussion. Robin also commented that members of the community that believe there are people in Council being swayed by other peoples agendas. We have Councillors who worked hard, who are honest and independent, and have always respected peoples opinions and she believed that had changed.

The Mayor invited Robin to meet with her at any time to discuss her concerns.
